

Hold the people using the airways to the rules as fairness to both sides informs people. Pretending something is news when it is a partisan ad discredits them and they must be held accountable.